PAKISTAN FLOOD RESPONSE

COMPLETION REPORT OCTOBER 2020

PAKISTAN FLOOD RESPONSE

COMPLETION REPORT OCTOBER 2020

Who?

Penny Appeal Canada

What?

We distributed 400 food parcels and a month's supply of water purification tablets to beneficiary families in Rehri Goth, District Malir, Karachi impacted by the flood:

Food parcels consisting of:
10kg flour, 4kg lentils (2kg of masoor & 2kg channa), 5L cooking oil, one month's supply of water purification tablets.

Total Investment: $9,870.10 CAD

Where?

Rehri Goth, District Malir, Karachi, Sindh, Pakistan

When?

Start Date: October 1st, 2020

End Date: October 14th, 2020

Why?

The 2020 monsoon season in Pakistan caused severe flooding in provinces across the nation resulting in over two hundred deaths and injuries, and over two thousand damaged houses. Vulnerable families residing in precarious living conditions were forced to unexpectedly evacuate their homes and seek temporary shelter.

What was achieved?

Through your generous donations, we were able to directly provide essential supplies (food parcels and clean water access) to 4,030 individuals in the affected regions.
